THEY COMPLAIN.

Several Outlaws Charge Poor Management on the Part of the Santa Fe.

There is at this time a heavy movement of cattle from Southern Texas to points in the Indian Territory. The Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe is hauling a large number of these cattle. Last night a Gazette reporter was asked to call at the Pickwick hotel, where a number of cattlemen were in conference. Referring to the hotel he found present Ed Hewins of Cedar Vale, Kan., Ike Pryor of Austin, Smith Forsythe of the Forsythe Land and Cattle Company, T. C. Shoemaker and Robert E. Maddox of Fort Worth.

Mr. Hewins stated they had sent for a reporter because they felt they had a just grievance against the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad Company. "Our cattle are being badly handled by the road and they have no management of the business that we can find, the other roads here, but the Santa Fe agents in one shipment 100 cattle died and in another forty head. I came here to tend to my cattle with the men I have with me. The Santa Fe brought part of my cattle here and left nine cars sidetracked at Cleburne for several hours and insisted on feeding them when I positively said I wanted them stopped and fed here where they could get some rest in dry pens and receive proper care. At Cleburne they will be in the mud and can get no rest. I want my cattle to get through in good condition, and to test end I wanted the stop made at Fort Worth. I can find no one to attend to the business, no superintendent of division, no live stock agent. Occasionally I find a roadmaster. On the Atchison-Topeka end of the road we get better service.

When the cattle were loaded some attention was paid to the size of the cars, which are twenty-eight, thirty and thirty-four feet long. When they have been fed and are reloaded they are put into the cars in equal numbers, which, of course, crowds the shorter cars and leaves unnecessary room in the larger ones."

Mr. Pryor endorsed what Mr. Hewins said and added: "The company is hating Fort Worth; we want our cattle stopped here but they stop them at Cleburne or Gainesville. I came here to meet my cattle having ordered them stopped here, but they were stopped at Cleburne and I am here. I have threatened to ship by the Frisco but the officers of the Santa Fe only laugh at me. There is not a man I know of who has shipped over the Santa Fe who has not complained. The trains of the Santa Fe hardly stop long enough in Fort Worth to give a man time to eat a sandwich and drink a cup of coffee."

Mr. Forsythe—He heartily concurs in every word that has been said. Our cattle have been treated badly, and shipments have not been made as we desire."

Col. B. E. Maddox said: "It is a shame; the cattlemen desire to stop their cattle here where they can get the benefit of good yards and good care. I suggest that the shippers bill their cattle to Fort Worth, and then if they are not shipped here they will have cause for damages."

Mr. Shoemaker said he was with the others and desired to do all in his power to see their cattle handled as they desired to have them.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

The Drawings Now on the Way to Fort Worth.

There having been considerable talk about the commencement of work on the Board of Trade, and President Chase being anxious to learn of the movements of Mr. Armstrong, he telegraphed to him yesterday and last night received the following:

Dallas Dose Up.

DALLAS, May 7.—The Houston babies succeeded in breaking the record of the Hams to-day in a hard fought game of two hours. The batteries and infield did most of the work, only two of the fielders making a put out. Whitaker was effective, only five hits being made by the visitors. Flood hustled the home sluggers pretty well, the six hits being credited to them being scattered. The game was won in the first inning. Gougar was given his base on balls, stole second and scored on Weikart's hit. Weikart stole second and scored on Faherty's single. The following is the score:

HOUSTON.
A.	B.	R.	H.	E.	S.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Gougar, 3b	3	1	1	0	0	0	1	0	1
Faherty, c	4	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Score by Innings:

Dallas..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Houston..... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2
Summary.—Flood pitched 1 1/2 hours, 30 balls, 60 strikes. Struck out by Whitaker, 3; Flood, 6. Double plays: Flood and Weikart. Time of game—two hours. Umpire: J. A. Atchison. 300. Crothers and Wentz for Dallas, and Shea and Murphy for Houston will be the batteries for to-morrow.

A Great Victory for the Female Exitors.

Special to the Gazette.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 7.—To-day the second game of the present series between San Antonio and Austin resulted in an overwhelming victory for the home team, the score being ten to two.

Following is the score by innings:
San Antonio..... 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1-10
Austin..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-2
Time of game—1 1/2. Umpire—Cohn.

The batteries were Baldwin and Sixsmith for San Antonio against Earet and Bradley for Austin. As will be seen from the score, Earet, Austin's catcher, was unmercifully slugged, the home team getting in eleven single-base hits and three two baggers off his delivery, while the visitors made only two singles and one three bagger off Baldwin. With the exception of an excusable error on third by Flynn, San Antonio played almost an errorless game. But for Flynn allowing a grounder to pass him, Austin would have been shut out.

To-day Bright, San Antonio's short stop, was traded to Austin for Flynn, which was very materially strengthened the home team.

The game of Sunday was postponed on account of rain and will be played to-morrow afternoon, with Prosser and Weaver in the box for the visitors and Landis and Hantel for San Antonio.

Galveston vs. Balloon Mine.

About 600 people witnessed another drubbing of the home club, this time from the doughty boys from the Island City. J. Ryan, who was released by the Galvestons this morning, officiated at short stop for the home club, while Rademaker held down the left garden. Firli, the captain of the Fort Worths was absent, and Maurer played right field.

The game was not characterized by any brilliant playing, with the exception of Rademaker who made a beautiful running catch in left field.

The game opened with Sunday at the bat for the Fort Worths, who took the initial by being struck with a pitched ball. Joyce followed and hit to right center for two bags, advancing Sunday to third, who came home on passed ball. J. Ryan tapped to pitcher and went out on first. Rademaker next came to bat and hit to second baseman, who threw out Joyce trying to come home. O'Connor knocked to short stop who threw out Rademaker at second, retiring the side.

G. Stallings in the same inning for the Galvestons struck out. Kienzie followed suit and also fanned the zephyrs. Dooley hit a hard crack to left field, getting Pujil hit to short stop, advancing Dooley to second. Short stop threw who first allowing Pujil to reach third, while Dooley trotted over the home plate. The next willed the willow, popping up a fly to third baseman who muffed, allowing Pujil the home plate. Smith flew to center field, who muffed, which put Ike on third and Smith on second. Dowle tipped to pitcher and was thrown out at first, which retired the side.

In the second inning the home boys were goose-egged, while the visitors hit safe to center for a bag. Made a run for the second bag and had poor prospects to get there, as Kienzie threw lively but O'Connor dropped the ball. T. Stallings struck out. G. Stallings hit the home side for two bases bringing Guener into harbor.

RANDALL & CHAMBERS CO.

Kienzie flew to Joyce, and Dooley went out on a foul tip, retiring the side.

No runs were made in the third and fourth.

In the fifth M. Ryan for the Fort Worths hit high to center field but Kienzie pulled it down. Kittle got one on the end of his bat and landed it to left field for two bags. O'Leary got base on being hit with pitched ball. Sunday advanced a long one to right but it fell into Guener's hands. Kittle was on the alert and so soon as the ball was caught started for third base like a steam engine. The right fielder threw wild to second while Kittle kept going, crossing the home plate amidst the enthusiastic yells of the spectators. Joyce flew to center field, which retired the side.

In the same inning for the visitors, Pujil got first on five balls, but was thrown out trying to steal second. Ike hit into right center, thereby getting two bases and was given third by a wild pitch. Smith hit to right field. Maurer muffed, allowing Ike to score. Dowle rapped to J. Joyce, who threw him out at first. Guener repeated the act to J. Ryan, retiring the side.

The sixth and seventh were goose eggs for the home team.

In the eighth Joyce hit a two-bagger to right field. J. Ryan drove to left center for a base on which Joyce scored. Rademaker hit to short stop who cut off J. Ryan at second. O'Connor hit safe to left field sending Rademaker to second. Maurer tapped to pitcher who cut off Rademaker at third. M. Ryan hit to pitcher and went out at first.

The Galvestons failed to score in the same inning.

The game now stood 3 to 4 in favor of the visitors and the spectators were in a fever of expectancy to see what the home boys would do as there was a chance to tie the score with perhaps a possible victory. But they proved unequal to the occasion as Kittle sawed the wind, O'Leary fanned the breeze and Joyce agitated the atmosphere.
